World Agricultural Supply and Demand Estimates 12/10/20

WHEAT: The outlook for 2020/21 U.S. wheat this month is for slightly smaller supplies, unchanged domestic use, higher exports, and lower ending stocks. Supplies are reduced on lower imports, which are decreased 5 million bushels to 120 million on a slower-than expected pace. Exports are raised 10 million bushels to 985 million as higher white wheat exports are partially offset by lower Hard Red Winter (HRW) exports. Sales and shipments of white wheat have been robust this marketing year to several East Asian countries. Conversely, HRW exports have slowed for the past several weeks. Projected 2020/21 ending stocks are reduced 15 million bushels to 862 million, down 16 percent from last year. The season-average farm price is unchanged at $4.70 per bushel.

COARSE GRAINS: This month's 2020/21 U.S. corn supply and use outlook is unchanged from last month. The projected season-average farm price is unchanged at $4.00 per bushel.

OILSEEDS: Total U.S. oilseed production for 2020/21 is projected at 123.7 million tons, down from last month on lower cottonseed production. Soybean crush for 2020/21 is increased 15 million bushels to 2.195 billion on strong crush margins and record early season crush. With exports unchanged, soybean ending stocks for 2020/21 are projected at 175 million bushels. If realized, ending stocks would be the lowest since 2013/14. Soybean and soybean product prices are forecast higher this month. The U.S. season average soybean price for 2020/21 is projected at $10.55 per bushel, up 15 cents. The WASDE-607-3 soybean meal price is projected at $370 per short ton, up 15 dollars. The soybean oil price is forecast at 36 cents per pound, up 1.5 cents with cash prices reaching the highest level in the past six years.

Morning National Slaughter Cattle Review for 12/11/20

For Thursday negotiated cash trading was limited on light demand in Nebraska and Western Cornbelt. In Nebraska a few live and dressed purchases traded from 106.00-107.00 and from 167.00 - 168.00, respectively. Not enough purchases in either region for a full market trend. Last week in Nebraska live purchases traded at 110.00 and dressed purchases traded from 172.00-174.00. In the Western Cornbelt Wednesday was the last reported market with live purchases from 104.00-105.00 and dressed purchases at 168.00. For Thursday in the Southern Plains negotiated cash trading was at a standstill. The last reported market was on Tuesday with live purchases at 108.00.

Missouri Weekly Cattle Auction Summary 12/11/20

Receipts: 46,955 Week ago: 51,165 Year ago: 45,999

Compared to last week steers under 700 lbs. and heifers under 600 lbs. sold uneven from 3.00 lower to 5.00 higher, heavier weights sold steady to 3.00 lower. The supply of feeders was heavy at all barns once again this week, although there weren't as many total sales as last week. Demand for feeders was moderate at best. The heavy supplies are making it difficult to move all the cattle and find room for them if they can get them moved. The best demand was for lighter weight grazers, which saw the better markets if flesh conditions were right and health programs were part of the package. Heavy weight cattle are currently under a lot of pressure as there just isn't the room for them in feedlots right now. Combined with high feed cost, lower slaughter cattle prices, and a boxed beef cutout values that just tanked this week, not much in their favor currently. Given all those negatives however, the market held up better than one might expect this week. A highlight draft of cattle this week was 130 head of 828 lbs. steers which sold at the Kingsville Livestock Auction at 144.25. The Choice boxed beef value closed Thursday at 214.59 down 20.43 and Select 198.47 down 19.04 compared to last Fridays close. As of Thursday afternoon, just over 50K head of sales were reported from feedlots, there might be more than occurred after hours but thus far, live sales ranged from 103.00-108.00 and dressed 164.00-170.00 with most of the higher money earlier in the week. Friday's Missouri Stocker Formula consisted of 10,396 head with a weighted average weight of 556.03 lbs. and a price value of 151.86, 2.32 lower than last Friday.
